DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 19-20, 25-26 and 31-33, drawn to a method for selecting or preparing cells comprising at least one metabolic pathway or metabolic pathway family.

Group II, claim(s) 19, 21-24 drawn to a method for selecting or preparing cells comprising at least one metabolic pathway or metabolic pathway family comprising implementing in vitro mutagenesis.

Group III, claim(s) 19, 25 and 27-30, drawn to a method for selecting or preparing cells comprising at least one metabolic pathway or metabolic pathway family comprising modifying by replacement the first selection marker in the vector.

Group IV. Claim(s) 34-35, drawn to a process for preparing the product {B} from the substrate {Ai}.

Group V, claim(s) 36, drawn to a method for selecting or preparing a host cell (Ai; B) incapable of metabolizing a substrate (Ai) and the product (B).

The inventions listed as Groups I-IV and V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the different inventions do not have corresponding special technical features as each method have different modes of operation and effects. For example, the inventions of Group II are drawn to a post-modification of the molecule by in vitro mutagenesis. Group III is drawn to modifying the selection marker. These modification(s) are not recited in the other groups such as claim 19 which requires no post modification of the selected host cells or selection marker modification.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Eukaryotic or Prokaryotic cells as recited in claim 28. (Please note that for a proper species election a species of i.e., eukaryotic e.g., yeast is required. Eukaryotic or prokaryotic cells are generic, not species.)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The following claim(s) are generic: 19 and 28.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features as each host cells, eukaryotic and prokaryotic, has mutually exclusive characteristics and mode of actions. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicants are reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
